

GROUP TRANSFORMATION OFFICE

The Group Transformation Office is supporting the Group on its journey to the bank of tomorrow and is focused on the execution of large transformational projects.

Working in our team will allow you to learn and perform the following activities:

- Support the Group Transformation Office teams in designing, planning and executing Transformation initiatives, leveraging on change management methodologies and tools
- Execute effective project meetings and follow-up on implementation of decisions taken
- Interact with different corporate functions (e.g., Business, Digital, Finance)
- Analyze data generating appropriate KPIs and tracking the implementation status of specific initiatives

What will make you perfect fit for the position:

- Analytical mindset and good problem-solving skills
- Fluent in written and spoken English, together with good communication skills
- Proactivity and readiness to take a responsibility
- Ability to cooperate with others in a diverse international setting
- Confident user of Microsoft Office tools

Position: Internship

Location: Milan

Time Factor: 6 months