the PhD scholarship, as per Rector's Decree approving the selection outcome, or the scholarship offered following withdrawal to attend the PhD Programme in

HEREBY STATE

in order to be awarded a scholarship, that I:
- have not benefited from any other scholarships, not even for one year, to attend a Doctorate;
and that I have understood:
- the criteria for Doctoral scholarship allocation (as described in the Admission Announcement);
- that students cannot accumulate, as from the start date of the Ph.D. programme, the scholarship with any other scholarships, except for those granted by national or foreign institutions to cover for study periods abroad integrating my research activity;
- that students cannot be holders, as from the start date of the Ph.D. programme, of research fellowships according to Law 449/97 and ff. (art. 22 Law 240/10);
- that if the above conditions are not met and I do not meet the necessary requirements, I shall promptly inform the Doctoral Office in writing in order to allow for the interruption of the scholarship;
- that allocation of the scholarship shall be interrupted in the event that I withdraw or I am excluded from the Doctorate, as established by the Doctoral Board;
- that allocation of the scholarship can be suspended under special circumstances and the relevant instalments can be recovered by Rector's provision following a proposal of the Doctoral Board;
- that I am aware that I can renounce my scholarship without losing my PhD student status;;
- that scholarships do not entitle holders to any legal or financial career advancement;
- that scholarships are increased by 50% only in the event that the period of stay abroad is uninterrupted and not shorter than sixty days;
- that if I have a national security insurance position in Italy, I must contact the Doctoral Office

Social security contributions for PhD scholarship holders

PhD scholarships are subject to deductions of national insurance contributions for atypical workers ("lavoratori parasubordinati"), as provided by art. 2 par. 26 of Law 335/95 and subsequent amendments.

For this purpose all PhD students holding a scholarship (including non-Italian students) must personally register with the National Institute for Social Security (INPS), under a separate scheme (Gestione Separata INPS).

Registration must be made on the INPS website http://www.inps.it (if you do not have a PIN code for access to the INPS services, you need to request one online).
